DILLINGHAM AGAINST

THE WAIHAWA SUGAR CO.

SUIT TO ENFORCE THE LEASE OF HALEMANO RANCH LANDS.

Conditions Under Which the Twelve Thousand Acres of Land Were to be Leased—Other Cases.

Notice of appeal was filed yesterday in the case of Maria Julia Almeida vs. F. J. Testa, in which judgment was given to the plaintiff October 1, in the second district court. The action was originally brought for a debt of $116.13 for the use of certain premises belonging to the plaintiff.

In the circuit court yesterday a bill in equity for specific performance was filed by Benjamin F. Dillingham vs. The Waihawa Sugar Company, Ltd. The contract for which specific performance is asked by Mr. Dillingham is a lease to 12,000 acres of land known as the "Halemano Ranch Lands," situated in the district of Waihala. The lease is for a term of fifty years from the expiration of a present lease to the Oahu Railway and Land Company. For the first five years the annual rental is to be $3,500, payable semi-annually in advance. After the first five years the owners of the land are to receive 2 1/2 per cent of all sugar, molasses or other products of sugar cane and 2 1/2 per cent of all other crops produced or manufactured for sale on the premises. The rent no year was to be less than $3,500.

The plaintiff alleges that the above agreement was made between James H. Holt, Jr., George H. Holt, E. S. Holt and others on August 27, 1898, and that the same was accepted by him February 14, 1899. Since this agreement was made with Dillingham the Holts have leased the lands to John Emmeluth. The plaintiff alleges that Emmeluth assigned the lease to the Waihawa Sugar Company, the defendant in the suit. It is alleged also that Emmeluth well knew at the time that the plaintiff had made an agreement to lease the lands and that the defendant accepted the lease with full knowledge of the agreement.

The plaintiff prays that the defendant may be summoned to answer this complaint, but not under oath, and ordered to execute to the plaintiff a lease of the interests acquired by it from the Holts.

In the divorce of Henrietta M. Toogood vs. Albert Toogood, return was made yesterday of service on the defendant at Wailuku, October 10. The bill was filed August 15, but owing to the absence of the defendant from the islands, service on him was not had until as above stated.

A petition was filed yesterday by S. K. Kane, guardian of Isaac J. Robinson, minor, for leave to expend part of the principal to pay the ward's share of the debts upon the Robinson estate.

In the estate of Mary Kaumana Widemann a petition for allowance of accounts, final distribution and discharge was filed yesterday by the executor. Bills against the estate to the amount of $2,679.26 have been paid and a like sum received from the heirs of the estate.

Cuts and Bruises Quickly Healed.

"For three days and nights I suffered agony untold from an attack of cholera morbus brought on by eating cucumbers," says M. E. Lowther, clerk of the district court, Centerville, Iowa. "I thought I should surely die and tried a dozen different medicines, but all to no purpose. I sent for a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and three doses relieved me entirely. I went to sleep and did not awake for eight hours. On awakening a few hours ago I felt so gratified that the first work I do on going to the office is to write to the manufacturers of this remedy and offer them my grateful thanks and say, 'God bless you and the splendid medicine you make.' This remedy is for sale by Benson, Smith & Co., general agents, Territory of Hawaii."

Curative Skin Soap

is a medicinal and toilet soap that you are urged to try on the guarantee that it is a pure, wholesome soap.

Fels & Co., Philadelphia, are one of the largest toilet soap manufacturers in the world. We asked them to make us a really excellent medicinal soap. We told them that it must be better than any soap on the market. They guaranteed to do it. We now offer you this soap feeling assured that it possesses rare medicinal qualities wanting in other advertised "medicinal" soaps.

You are a judge of soap—that is, you soon discover whether it keeps the skin smooth and is agreeable to use. Now we want your opinion of Curative-Skin Soap.
